

Leprechauns are jolly fairies typically depicted in green clothing with a top hat. These Irish characters usually have red hair and even a red beard. They appear as icons of Ireland and especially of St. Patrick's Day each March 17. Fun-loving leprechauns are illustrated in a huge variety of styles. This silly scoundrel is running. Where is he going? Have fun coloring in this speedy leprechaun!